

BASIC NURSE ASSISTANT TRAINING

In this program students receive patient care training and have an opportunity to practice at an actual patient care facility. They will learn basic nursing and communication skills, anatomy, physiology, and medical terminology. Completion of the program prepares students to sit for the Written Competency Exam for the Certified Nurse Assistant (CNA) and enhances their opportunities for work and continuing education in the healthcare field.

Standard Occupational Classification (SOC) 31-1014

Occupational Information Network (O*NET)

www.bls.gov/soc/2010/soc311014.htm

Cost of Program

Tuition:	$765
Books and supplies (estimated):	$335
Registration Fee:	$100
Room and Board:	Not available
Total Cost:	$1,100

Median Loan Debt

Title IV	n/a
Private and Institutional Loans	n/a

Net Price Calculator

<http://zg-ort.edu/net-price-calculator.php>

Length of Program

6 weeks
5 Semester Credit Hours
129 Clock Hours

Award

Basic Nursing Assistant Training Certificate

Program Completion 2010 ACCET

n/a

On Time Graduation Rate

n/a

Program Placement 2010 ACCET

n/a

Program Placement Rate ISBE

n/a